

THE WEEK IN
ASTORIA SOCIETY

And "now the New Year reviving old Desires," we hark back to the visions of joyous frolic in the good old winter time.

For amid all the hurly burly and barrenness came another snow and ceaselessly, in a gray cloud, pile higher and higher till the earth was swathed in a fleecy blanket. "Around the glistening wonder bent The blue walls of the firmament. No cloud above, no earth below. A universe of sky and snow."

Many of the young society people trooped merrily to the skating rink at Foard & Stokes hall Friday evening. All reports culminate as they augur, the revival in skating is to be made a thing of permanence by the formation of a club from the ranks of those who lead.

Among those who participated in the evening's sport on Friday were the Misses Margaret Higgins, Van Dusen, Upshur, Noland, Morton, Barker, Nan and Bess Reed, Nell Utzinger; Messrs. Lounsbury, Jr., Higgins, Jr.; chaperones, Mrs. Higgins and Mrs. George Flavel.

It is with cards, above all, that refuge in society is sought from the burden of the serious duties and the annals of routine.

Bridge whist has advanced from the merely popular stage to be the reigning passion among diversions.

The impromptu party is the call of the day or evening, and the game of fortune, ever the most fascinating to the man or woman of temperament, is pursued with an interest which admits no superior attractions.

The Thursday Afternoon Club was entertained last Thursday by Miss Alice Woods at her charming home. Miss Harriet Tallent won at cards.

Miss Tallent, who has but recently returned from a sojourn of several months in Ferndale, California, will again take her departure from her home city next week, when she will start with Mrs. Hunter, daughter of Dr. Tuttle, for a visit to Roslyn, E. C.

Miss Hattie Utzinger entertained the D. M. C. D. club last week.

The Five Hundred Club met at the home of Mrs. Theodore Linds in Alderbrook last Friday. Cards were played and during the afternoon dainty refreshments were served.

The Ladies' Relief Corps, Cushing Post No. 3, met Wednesday evening with Cushing Post No. 4, and after installation of officers entertained most enjoyably during the evening. The newly elected officers of the Ladies' Corps are as follows: President, Mrs. Pauline Ziegler; Senior Vice President, Mrs. Mattie Staples; Junior Vice President, Mrs. Mary Lash; Treasurer, Mrs. Rowena Springer; Secretary, Miss Mamie Clinton; Chaplain, Mrs. Ella Hamlin; Conductor, Mrs. Sophia Hall; Guard, Mrs. Sophia Fannon; Assistant Conductor, Mrs. Reith; Assistant Guard, Mrs. Fannie Cronk; Patriotic Instructor, Mrs. Sarah Clinton; Color Bearers, No. 1, Mrs. Sarah Fastabend; No. 2, Mrs. Agnes Josephson; No. 3, Mrs. Grace Leabb; No. 4, Mrs. Lucy Ingalls. The officers of Cushing Post No. 4 are: B. F. Allen, Commander; D. B. Allen, Senior Vice Commander; R. C. Welch, Junior Vice Commander; C. S. Wright, Chaplain; A. Scherneckau, Quarter-master; B. L. Taylor, Officer of the Day; W. C. Shaw, Adjutant; A. D. Craig, Sergeant; S. Elmore, Officer of the Guard.

Mrs. W. S. Gilbert entertained the ladies of the Birthday Club of the Presbyterian church on Friday. About twenty-five ladies were there and a delightful afternoon was spent.

Mrs. Kate Kearney, Mrs. O'Connor and Mrs. McPharlan will entertain with a card party at St. Mary's church hall on next Tuesday.

Miss Gracie Williams, the grandchild of Mr. A. Montgomery, the sturdy pioneer, who celebrated his eighty-fifth birthday last week, was given a surprise party on Saturday, January 5, in honor of the twelfth anniversary, where the afternoon was spent in games, singing and recitations. Later Miss Gracie's mother, Mrs. Nellie Williams, served a dainty lunch to the children. Miss Gracie Williams was the recipient of many birthday gifts, together with many happy returns of the day. Among those present were Misses Zoa Brown, Mabel Poole, Rena Elberman, Edith Haney, Ruby Hannon, Eva Anderson, Jean Barr, Edna Wilson, Cleo Shafer, Vivian Watson, Helen Mudge, Agnes Falconer, Mrs. Endicott, Mrs. Robinson, Miss Robinson, Miss Polly Endicott, Masters Clinton Endicott, James Olverton and Mrs. Bessie Stevens, of Astoria.

The past week found the teachers of the public schools back in their respective places after the holiday season, which each spent after his or her particular idea and fashion. Five young teachers from the Washington shore chartered the launch Pilot to transfer them to Chinook and Ilwaco, where they returned from the holidays spent in Astoria, to continue their work. Miss Grace Stokes was one of a number of Astorians who went up last week to the great musical and social event of the Portland season, the concert of Madame Schumann-Heink.

So pleased was the great singer with the overwhelmingly enthusiastic reception which she received in Portland on the occasion of her first concert on Monday that she announced, after many recalls, in her charming broken English, "I am so happy. You have made me so happy that I come to you again Saturday."

The children's dancing class, which meets at the A. O. U. W. hall, under Prof. Ringler, is very popular and was well attended last week.

Mr. Ross Trullinger is welcomed back to social circles after several months' absence in California.
